

True School Entertainment
Publicity & Protection

For Immediate Release
January 19, 2017

CLASSIC HIP-HOP ICONS DOMINATE LAS VEGAS AIRWAVES

(Las Vegas, NV) March 20, 2017 – Las Vegas premier classic Hip-Hop radio station and local NPR/AAPR affiliate Power 88.1 (KCEP) was the host to a bit of Hip-Hop history. All of the Las Vegas listening audience got to listen in, as Legends Eric B (Eric B & Rakim) and Freedom Williams (C+C Music Factory) spent 45 minutes talking about the state of Hip-Hop today, the history of rap and even the best place to eat in Vegas. Afterwards, the icons converged on The Sugar Factory for dinner and future planning, where they ran into none other than Public Enemy's Flavor Flav.

As founding member and frontman for C+C Music Factory, Freedom has been the recipient of 5 American Music Awards, Billboard Awards, and MTV Music Awards, as well as Grammy Nominations. You can catch Freedom on the "I Love The 90s Tour" in the Spring/Summer of 2017

