March 20, 2017

(Las Vegas, NV) March 14, 2017 – The 21st Annual Mobile Beat Convention, also known as MBLV 2017, held at the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas, was a chaotic scene, as C+C Music Factory founding member and frontman Freedom Williams took the stage and performed the hit classics that brought him instant stardom in the early 90s, songs that are still instantly recognizable across the world today. The surprise performance brought the crowd rushing to the front of the stage and kept them enraptured, from the opening verse to the closing chorus.

5 time American Music Award winning Williams, co-headlining along with legendary Trance DJ and 3 time Grammy Nominee Paul Oakenfold, brought bedlam to an already rowdy audience of mobile DJs from around the world. These legends absolutely brought the crowd to it's feet and kept them dancing until the lights came back up.
